CARNEGIE SCIENCE CENTER TO HOST ALMOST OVERNIGHTER FOR PRESCHOOLERS

JAMMIE JAM TO WRAP UP BEFORE BEDTIME!

PITTSBURGH, April 30, 2014 — Carnegie Science Center’s Jammie Jam will offer an evening of themed activities for early learners ages 2-6 on Saturday, May 10 from 5:30 pm – 9 pm.

Preschoolers and their grown-up will experience make-and-take activities, a live theater show and story time. Plus, they’ll have access to four floors of exhibits and enjoy a snack. Children are encouraged to wear their pajamas.

The cost is $15 per child and $10 per adult. To register, call 412.237.1637. For more details about Almost Overnighers, visit CarnegieScienceCenter.org.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center’s goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh’s premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Founded by Andrew Carnegie in 1895, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a collection of four distinctive museums dedicated to exploration through art and science: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. Annually, the museums reach more than 1.2 million people through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
