BLUE! PERFORMANCE SERIES TO PRESENT LOCAL BLUES DUO
JILL WEST AND GREGG KRUPA TO PERFORM AUG. 23 IN BLUE! EXHIBIT GALLERY

PITTSBURGH, August 13, 2014 — Jill West and Gregg Krupa, two members of the Pittsburgh-based blues band Jill West & Blues Attack, will bring their music to Carnegie Science Center on Saturday, Aug. 23, as part of the BLUE! performance series. The show will begin at 1 pm in the BLUE! exhibit gallery.

Free with general admission to the Science Center, BLUE! performances are sponsored by Dollar Bank and are being held every Saturday in August.

Jill West & Blues Attack’s musical style has been said to be similar to that of B.B. King, the Vaughan Brothers, and Muddy Waters. The group has performed across the tri-state area and has opened for many national acts. Lead vocalist Jill West has a dynamic sound range that engages audiences. Gregg Krupa serves as lead guitarist and vocalist. He has been compared to Stevie Ray Vaughan and Eric Clapton, but he really shines when playing original pieces for listeners.

BLUE! runs through Jan. 1, 2015, and is included with general admission. The immersive, hands-on exhibit features molded foam blocks of all shapes and sizes, from small enough to use on a tabletop to huge enough to climb on – and all blue. Visit CarnegieScienceCenter.org for more details.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center’s goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh’s premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Annually, the museums reach more than 1.2 million people through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
