DAN ONORATO JOINS SCIENCE CENTER BOARD
HIGHMARK EXECUTIVE VP WAS FORMERLY COUNTY EXECUTIVE

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 29, 2016 — Carnegie Science Center is pleased to welcome Dan Onorato as the newest member of its Board. Mr. Onorato is executive vice president, public policy, and chief government relations and community affairs officer for Highmark Health. His responsibilities include government and regulatory affairs, community investment, and public policy.

Mr. Onorato serves as chairman of the Highmark Foundation, executive director of the Caring Foundation, and on both the board of directors and the executive committee of the Jefferson Foundation; as well as the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, Allegheny County Parks Foundation and Catholic Charities, Diocese of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Business Council and America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP) policy and regulatory affairs committee.

Before he joined Highmark, he served two terms as Allegheny County Executive. Prior to that, he served as Allegheny County controller and as a Pittsburgh city councilman. He graduated from Penn State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting and holds a juris doctorate from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Mr. Onorato resides in Pittsburgh with his wife and three children.

About Carnegie Science Center
Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center’s goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh’s premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh
Founded by Andrew Carnegie 120 years ago, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a collection of four distinctive museums dedicated to exploration through art and science: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. The museums reach more than 1.3 million people a year through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.

###
