PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22, 2024 – Visitors are invited to come in costume and have a ghoulishly good time at Carnegie Science Center this Sun., Oct. 27 for Halloween Hunt! From 10 am–5 pm, families and friends can venture on a non-spooky interactive scavenger hunt throughout all four floors of the museum, collecting stamps and a grand prize upon completion.

Visitors of all ages will enjoy spooktacular fun included with General Admission and are invited to:

- Make potion full of ghostly boo bubbles with the Science Center's demonstration theaters team
- Design a tiny, take-home haunted house
- Lean into a mad scientist frame of mind to make EcoBrix with recycled materials in the Mars: The Next Giant Leap® exhibition
- Listen to not-so-scary stories in Buhl Planetarium for Storytime Under the Stars
- Craft your own nebula spin art
- Find Nemo on the USS Requin (SS 481) Submarine

For additional costs, visitors can explore The Science Behind Pixar exhibition, see Toy Story of Terror! in The Rangos Giant Cinema, marvel at Laser Family Halloween in Buhl Planetarium, and enjoy snacks in the RiverView Café.

Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center, soon to be the Daniel G. and Carole L. Kamin Science Center, is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center's goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh's premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 500,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

Accessibility: Features for All

Carnegie Science Center welcomes all visitors. We work to assist visitors with disabilities in obtaining reasonable and appropriate accommodations, and in supporting equal access to services, programs, and activities. We welcome visitors in wheelchairs on the deck of our USS Requin (SS 481) submarine. Below-deck visits require full mobility. Hearing assistance devices are available for The Rangos Giant Cinema. Please ask when you buy your ticket.

Please note that requests for accommodations should be made at least two weeks prior to your visit. For specific questions about wheelchairs, strollers, or other programmatic or equipment needs, see the ticket counter located on the first floor of the main building or contact Customer Service at 412.237.1641 or info@carnegiesciencecenter.org. Please contact Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh's Accessibility Coordinator with concerns regarding accessibility for visitors with disabilities at the museums. On weekdays, call 412.622.6578 or email accessibility@carnegiemuseums.org.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh
