ADULT NIGHTS ARE BACK AT CARNEGIE SCIENCE CENTER

18+ NIGHT: ROCK AND ROLL SHOWCASES LIVE MUSIC AND SCIENCE DEMOS ON SEPT. 17

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10, 2021 – College students, adults, and rock and roll enthusiasts ages 18+ are invited to Carnegie Science Center on Fri., Sept. 17 for 18+ Night: Rock and Roll. The adults-only night features live music, electric guitar demos, and themed shows.

From 6–10 pm, visitors can attend the “Sounds Like Science” live show – featuring a Rubens Tube, a device that visualizes sound waves in flames. The live band, Barnacle Feet, will play a variety of rock hits, and guests will have the chance to play a classic rock riff on a guitar. For an extra charge, guests can attend a Pink Floyd Laser Show in Buhl Planetarium.

Tickets for 18+ Night: Rock and Roll are $18 for Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh Members and $20 for Nonmembers if purchased in advance online. Tickets at the door are limited and cost $22.50 for Members and $25 for Nonmembers.

Food and beverage are available for purchase in the RiverView Café. Proper identification must be presented for all alcohol purchases.

To prevent the spread of the COVID-19 Delta variant in areas with substantial/high transmission, Carnegie Science Center requires all visitors and staff at the event – vaccinated and unvaccinated – to wear masks while indoors.

Additional 18+ events are scheduled at Carnegie Science Center for the fall. To celebrate the Science Center’s 30th anniversary, an 18+ Night: Dirty 30 is scheduled for Fri., Oct. 22 and is a nod to the year 1991. 18+ Night: Team Design Challenge on Fri., Nov. 19 celebrates friendsgiving with an engineering twist. Tickets are available online.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center’s goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh’s premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

Accessibility: Features for All

Carnegie Science Center welcomes all visitors. We work to assist visitors with disabilities in obtaining reasonable and appropriate accommodations, and in supporting equal access to services, programs, and activities. We welcome visitors in wheelchairs on the deck of our USS Requin (SS 481) submarine. Below-deck visits require full mobility. Hearing assistance devices are available for The Rangos Giant Cinema. Please ask when you buy your ticket.

Please note that requests for accommodations should be made at least two weeks prior to your visit. For specific questions about wheelchairs, strollers, or other programmatic or equipment needs, see the ticket counter located on the first floor of the main building or contact Customer Service at 412.237.1641 or info@carnegiesciencecenter.org. Please contact Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh's Accessibility Coordinator with concerns regarding accessibility for visitors with disabilities at the museums. On weekdays, call 412.622.6578 or email accessibility@carnegiemuseums.org.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Founded by Andrew Carnegie in 1895, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a family of four dynamic, distinctive museums: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. The museums reach 1.5 million people a year through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
