REMAKE LEARNING DAYS COME TO CARNEGIE SCIENCE CENTER ON SAT., MAY 14
AND SAT., MAY 21

EVENTS ENCOURAGE SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION THROUGH PLAY

PITTSBURGH, May 11, 2022 — Carnegie Science Center is proud to be involved with Remake Learning Days Across America, a family-friendly festival to engage parents, caregivers, and kids on Sat., May 14 and Sat., May 21. From 10 am–4:30 pm, families with kids of all ages can participate in hands-on activities that explore science, technology, and social science through demonstrations, crafts, and more.

On May 14, young learners will explore social science through “Exploration Humanity”, a deeper look into what makes us human. Families can also enjoy Amazon Adventure, a film that examines the Amazon Rainforest in The Rangos Giant Cinema at an additional cost, which includes water, popcorn, and an activity in the Rangos lobby.

On May 21, families can engage in activities related to coding and engineering in “RoboExpo”, set in roboworld® among interactive robots that shoot baskets, crack jokes, and make music. Families can also enjoy America’s Musical Journey, a film that follows the footsteps of American musician Louie Armstrong in The Rangos Giant Cinema at an additional cost, which includes water, popcorn, and an activity in the Rangos lobby.

About Remake Learning Days

Remake Learning Days Across America (RLDAA) is a celebration of innovative experiences and opportunities for youth to develop their sense of creativity, perseverance, and curiosity. Remake Learning Days is a festival of events hosted by a variety of organizations, such as schools, museums, libraries, after school organizations, early childcare centers, universities, media centers, tech startups and more.

These events are designed to be hands-on, relevant, and engaging educational experiences for youth of all ages (pre-K through high school) and their families, caregivers, and educators. Most events are free and open to kids of all ages.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center's goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh's premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

Accessibility: Features for All

Carnegie Science Center welcomes all visitors. We work to assist visitors with disabilities in obtaining reasonable and appropriate accommodations, and in supporting equal access to services, programs, and activities. We welcome visitors in wheelchairs on the deck of our USS Requin (SS 481) submarine. Below-deck visits require full mobility. Hearing assistance devices are available for The Rangos Giant Cinema. Please ask when you buy your ticket.

Please note that requests for accommodations should be made at least two weeks prior to your visit. For specific questions about wheelchairs, strollers, or other programmatic or equipment needs, see the ticket counter located on the first floor of the main building or contact Customer Service at 412.237.1641 or info@carnegiesciencecenter.org. Please contact Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh's Accessibility Coordinator with concerns regarding accessibility for visitors with disabilities at the museums. On weekdays, call 412.622.6578 or email accessibility@carnegiemuseums.org.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Established in 1895 by Andrew Carnegie, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a collection of four distinctive museums: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. In 2017, the museums reached more than 1.4 million people through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
